President's Message

Let it Snow, let it Snow, let it Snow! As winter descends upon us, I'd like to welcome you all to the new version of our club's Newsletter. It is a work in progress and I encourage everyone to assist in the process by supporting Lee Herman and Ann Coy as they create the electronic "voice" for our club. I look forward to seeing many members at the Festival of Lights Parade and at the Holiday Party. Don't let the cold and snow keep you off your bike!

Editor's Corner

Welcome to the November 2004 issue of the CSCC newsletter. As the weather turns colder and the season changes from fall to winter, I would like to remind everyone that CSCC offers several organized rides that run all through winter and right into spring. Not a CSCC member? Don't worry! We'd love for you to join us on a ride anyway. We promise not to try to assimilate you . . . . at least not on your first ride! (Grin) members of the CSCC family are up to. Please forward your stories, ideas, photos, suggestions, and feedback. If you are interested in authoring an article, please let us know that too!

We will leave you with the following web article that was passed along from John Cunningham. It certainly gives a new meaning to the term "comfort bike".

CSCC Supports LAF in Moab!

CSCC members joined forces on October 2nd to support the 2nd Annual Moab Century and the Lance Armstrong Foundation (LAF). CSCC members in attendance were John Cunningham, Warren Barta, Leah Gaviola, Kerry Hefta, Brian Cox, Steve Bolt, Bob and Anne Smith, Sean Warner, and Ann Coy. A special thank you goes to Hanna Bolt for running an unofficial sag wagon. She was always there when we needed it!

Pre-event activities on Friday afternoon and evening included a social warm-up ride through the Colorado River canyons, a pasta dinner at the Moab Valley Inn, which was followed by a splash or two in the hot tub. The century kicked-off on Saturday morning with an 8 a.m. mass start with the first 30 miles presenting a continuous climb into the La Salle Mountains. Gradual at first, the climb quickly turned into a challenge that most certainly tested your resolve. You know the climb is tough when John Cunningham exclaims excitedly, "Wow! I am going 4 mph!"

The reward, after reaching the top of the La Salle Mountains, was a screaming descent into the Red Rock Canyons and continuing along the Colorado River for some very scenic views. The 40 mile out-and-back became a grueling test of endurance. The final 10 miles, simply put, had you questioning your sanity!

At ride end, everyone gathered at the park for the potato bar and then headed off to the hot tub to watch a spectacular desert sunset while soaking away the remainder of the day. You couldn't have asked for better weather. All in all, it was a great time in Moab. Put this one on your calendar and I will see you there next year!
